

"LATEST DEVELOPMENTS IN SPEECH AND LANGUAGE PATHOLOGY, OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY, PSYCHOLOGY AND SOCIAL WORK - ALOPS 22"

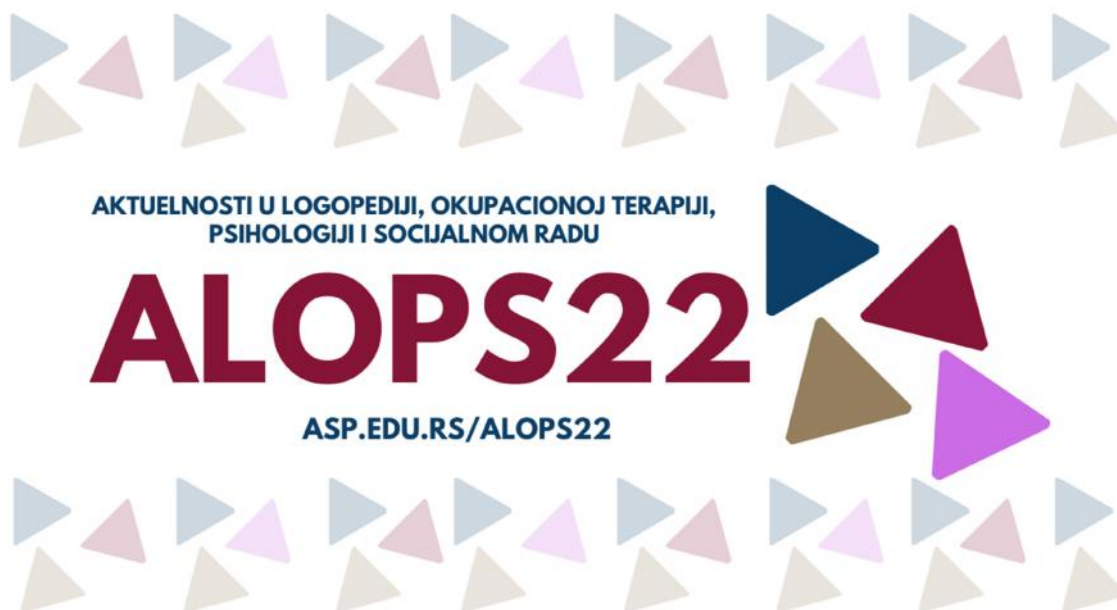

INTERNATIONAL SCIENTIFIC CONFERENCE

The College of Social Work Belgrade

Belgrade, December 1-2, 2022.

The Theme of the Conference:

A LOOK INTO THE FUTURE: HUMAN SCIENCES AND PRACTICE

FIRST CALL

In line with its mission to develop education and science, the College of Social Work in Belgrade, in cooperation with the Social Protection Chamber, is organising the Fifth International Scientific Conference in Speech and language pathology, Occupational therapy, Social work, and Psychology - ALOPS22.

As in previous years, this scientific conference provides an opportunity to unite the leading views of domestic and foreign academic scientists and astute practitioners on speech and language pathology, occupational therapy, social work and psychology. Appreciating your previous results in your scientific and professional career, we would like to invite you to join us and contribute to our International Scientific Conference by exchanging knowledge and experience.

CITING REFERENCES IN THE TEXT

- The reference is enclosed in parentheses and should contain the author's surname, year of publication and the page in the case of a literal citation (e.g. Mišovi , 2016, p. 22; Hariss, 2010, pp. 24).
- For citing a reference with two authors, both authors' surnames should be used wherever their work is cited (e.g. Risti &Medenica, 2019).
- For citing a reference with three to five authors, the first time all authors are written in the text (e.g. Risti , Medenica& ur evi , 2016), and in the following citations, the surname of the first author and the abbreviation et al. should be used, and year of publication separated by comma (e.g. Hulm et al., 2007; Risti et al., 2016).
- For citing a reference with six and more authors, only the surname of the first author and the abbreviation et al. should be used.
- If the author refers to several sources in the manuscript at the same time, the references in parentheses should be listed in alphabetical order, separated by a semicolon, and if there are more references by the same author, then chronologically, separated by a comma (e.g. Begi , 2017; Junuzovi -Žuni , 2002, 2013; Teskeredži , 2014). In case more references of one or more authors from the same year appear in the text, it is necessary to use lowercase for each of the references after the year of publication, starting with the lowercase a for the source that first appears in the text (e.g. Kiš-Glavaš, 2010a; Kiš-Glavaš, 2010b; Kiš-Glavaš, 2012a,b).

BIBLIOGRAPHY / LIST OF REFERENCES

- At the end of the paper, the bibliography should list all sources referred to or cited in the text of the paper. The list of references is formed according to APA style - The Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association, 6th ed., 2010.
- Alphabetical order of authors' surnames and chronological order for works by the same author(s). References are given in their original form, in the letter in which they were published. When citing online sources, it is necessary to write the date of downloading the information.
